SPEAKERS AND SPEECHES

What can I say about our speaker on the 23rd, other than she's really trying to make us healthy.

Ms Karen Anderson, a Native Californian, owns Doable Steps to a Balanced Lifestyle. Her focus is on proper habits, such as nutrition – eating complex carbohydrates, proteins and fiber, and avoid all things over refined and chemically created such as caffeine, aspartame, msg and Splenda.

She is an accident survivor with the motivation to move forward by moving back to the natural. No microwaving, just healthy cooked food and organics.

She is also trying to raise $5000 for the Leukemia/Lymphoma Society for research into the cure for these killers. The Society is having a fund raiser/auction on May 11th with proceeds going to stamp out Leukemia and Lymphoma. Go to www.active.com/doante/ssacmwoy05/sacKanders to donate.

2007 High School Speech Contest

On the 30th we held our 2007 High School Speech Contest. We had 4 contestants, including: Jason Holly a senior at Bella Vista; Rachael Wilson, a junior at Bella Vista; Lacy Lewin, a junior at Casa Roble and Samantha Hagan from Casa Roble.

Each one gave a speech regarding the Rotary Theme: Lead the Way.

Jason, who placed first, spoke of group consciousness and Polio Plus. Lacy, placing second, discussed what lies within each of us and leading by example through 4-H and Future Farmers of America.

Samantha made a valiant effort for third discussing Orangevale Rotary's local efforts as well as student government.

Our fourth place winner provided us with a lyrical piece on her experience at BattleCry – a Christian Concert in San Francisco.

All our contestants brought parents and teachers to support them. Jason will go to the Area Competition at the Rancho Cordova City Hall, and we encourage our members to go to the competition to support him.

Welcome Chris Zirkle!

Chris Zirkle was inducted in as a new Orangevale Rotarian. He was sponsored by Debbie Emery, who was sponsored by Brian Daniel, who inducted Chris. It was like seeing a grampa meet his new grandchild. Chris formerly worked for the California State Legislative Offices, and was a teacher at USF. Wow, a three striker: Lawyer, public employee and dealt closely with Legislature.

Now he volunteers to do legal work for non-profits. Chris introduced his wife Vicky, and expressed his hope that he will live up to our exacting expectations. Oh wait, April Fools day is another week away. Anyway, Debbie earned a sponsor pin for bringing in another attorney to the group. Welcome Chris.

For all you gentlemen,

April 1-7 is Get a Grip Week

Guests and Other Important Information

March 23rd we hosted Chris Zirkle (however briefly;) Linda Daniel, the Citrus Heights Inner Wheel Secretary; Debbie – Lisa’s new mom -- and Lisa; Jason Beck, Barbara Harris (Again;) John Paines; Hannah Leones, one of our outbound students for the year 2007-2008; and our speaker Karen Anderson.

A reminder we need help bringing Lisa to meetings from Debbie’s house, since Debbie isn’t a Rotarian.

The District Conference is May 4-6th. We have a suite to host our club reception area, and it’s on the first floor. We need some help to run the party. It will be a Jazz fest theme.

Arlene reports that the crew from the China Trip had a great time. They had 3 buses to take them around, dealt with crazy traffic, shopped and road the bullet train. All the trekkers wore their China Trip tee-shirts to make us all jealous.

Don’t forget to turn in your filled baby bottles to Joyce F, Paul N or Mike B. Save a nickel, save a baby.

On March 30th our guests included Rotarian Kim Stewart from the Rotary Club of Folsom, Lisa P; Marty Nescal; Vera Begera the principal of Casa Roble; and the parents and supporting teachers of our speech contestants.

Our contribution to Paul’s Long Run on 92.5 FM helped propel Paul Robbins to meet – no exceed!—his goal for the Atkinson Youth Home. Chris reports he got a little dehydrated half way through, and had a few other problems, but he completed the course on his own two feet, vowing “Never Again.”

Join the Rotary Crue team in the Race for the Cure on May 12th. Sign up on line and save $5. Go to Sackomen.org and click Race for the Cure. Make sure you click Join Team when registering and select Rotary Crue. To have an official team (and get signage) we need 20 members by April 13. (note the prior date was an error – the team had to be formed by March 27th, my bad, ed.) Bring your friends and family. Don’t forget, we’re collecting funds to help stop breast cancer, tell your friends about the website so they can donate in your name.

April 6th is Tartan Day. put on your kilt and prepare to fling!

FROM THE BULLY PEN

Our fearless leader was back from New Orleans for our March 23rd meeting, where he had been helping build a house with Habitat for Humanity in the 9th Ward. There were 700 volunteers working on 40 separate homes, each estimated to take 12 weeks to build. Wow.

For his return, there were 7 balls in the raffle and $158 in the pot. Don M had the winning ticket, the white ball remained elusive.

On the 30th, with 6 balls and $190, Joyce F had the winning ticket and the luck of the Irish and found the white ball. We start fresh on April 6th.

The Mystery Trip will start at 5:30 on April 14th. Mike says we'll be back in time to pay our taxes. There's 7 seats left, so sign up soon.

Tami P is pumped from District Conference. She's all set to apply for those grants.

Kirk C has a work party scheduled for April 3 at 6:30 p.m. at Pasteur to work on the track.

Another work party is set for April 11 at 3-5:30 p.m. to help set up for the ACS relay kickoff party. The party is from 6-7:15p.m.. Free dinner to those who attend!

Dennis says we need some drivers to help at the Saturday Booksale. Speak to him to set it up.

Don Russell still needs tutors and has openings for Monday. The chicken is dancing – MAKE HIM STOP!

THE BODACIOUS BOOKSALE IS COMING!

Yes, its that time of year. The Bodacious Booksale will be held May 31 – June 2. Drop off your donated books to the Orangevale Library,

The Friends of the Orangevale Library appreciate all of the help Rotary gives them, both in books, and in time.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

"Of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Panning for Gold

Bud took some time off on the 23rd, but he came back swinging on the 30th, striking it rich from so many :

All those travelers who went to China and wore their new duds were fined $1 each.

Paul Nelson was fined for throwing money around.

Chris was fined for allowing his phone to go off on the 16th, and just to prove this prospector has a long memory, Curtis was fined for inviting his guest an hour late to breakfast on the 16th.

Robert had to pay up because he led the Pledge with his hat on! (Horrors)

Daryl paid for his (?) picture in the Bee without any reference to Rotary.

Finally, the job went up for Auction and Karen B bid on the job for her dear hubby, Brian. She didn't have any money in her purse to Brian had to pay for the honor.

Remember to keep the prospector happy by feeding him all the dirt you can find.

Saturday April 7 is NO HOUSEWORK DAY. I guess everyone is helping the Easter Bunny dye eggs.
